

I do NOT believe that allowing cell phone use while aboard a commercial aircraft is a good idea. It's bad enough listening to people yammering away in restaurants and on public ground transportation (busses & rail). I can always leave a restaurant or get off a bus or train - can't say that about a plane! Please give us at least ONE place other than hospitals where these devices are not allowed.

Thank you.